

The members of the Mill Creek Fire Co., as well as the broader fire service community, have also kept their faith with Wayne and with the Steen family, another great tradition—members of the fire service always keep the faith.

There is no escaping that what happened to Wayne Steen is a tragedy, the kind that cannot be explained, and I do not want to minimize in any way the depth of the loss or the difficulty of the struggle. Our tears are more than justified.

Yet still, through our sadness and in asking Americans to offer prayers and good wishes in support of Wayne and his family, I would also ask that we not forget the immeasurable triumphs of Wayne Steen's life and spirit. Let us not forget the lessons he has taught us by his citizenship, let us not forget the purpose to which he sacrificed so much.

Let us not forget the bond and obligation we share as fellow citizens—let's take care of each other more often, let's work together better. Let's remember how lucky we are.

That's what Wayne Steen would want, and we owe it to him.

THE BAD DEBT BOXSCORE

Mr. HELMS. Mr. President, a lot of folks don't have the slightest idea about the enormity of the Federal debt. Occasionally, I ask friends, how many millions of dollars are there in a trillion? They think about it, voice some estimates, most of them wrong.

One thing they do know is that it was the U.S. Congress that ran up the enormous Federal debt that is now over $5 trillion.

To be exact, as of the close of business Monday, April 15, the total Federal debt—down to the penny—stood at $5,140,011,407,773.15. That's $5 trillion, 140 billion plus. Another sad statistic is that on a per capita basis, every man, woman and child in America owes $19,422.38.

So Mr. President, how many million are there in a trillion? There are a million-million in a trillion, which means that the Federal Government owes more than $5 million-million.

Sort of boggles the mind, doesn't it?

THE TYRANT OF TRIPOLI

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, on December 21, 1995, I rose on the Senate floor to note the seventh anniversary of the bombing of Pan Am flight 103 over Lockerbie, Scotland—an outrageous act of international terrorism which claimed the lives of 270 innocent people. Seven long years have passed, but still the victims' families have no solace that the alleged masterminds of this evil act will ever be brought to justice because the Libyan Government refuses to extradite them.

Yesterday, in an interview with Gayle Young of the Cable News Network, Libyan dictator Muammar Qaddafi attempted to justify his position: "We are ready [for] these suspects

* * * to go there for a trial. But the Governments of America and the British, [sic] they don't want to solve this problem * * *. They have no proof [so] they avoid the trial." Three assertions. Three untruths. Three additions to the endless stream of lies and falsehoods issuing from the tyrant of Tripoli.

A state which harbors outlaws must, of necessity, remain an outlaw state. The United States and the community of civilized nations must keep steadfast to our commitment to the rule of law and our demand for justice for the victims of Pan Am 103 and their families.

I thank the Chair and I yield the floor.

NDSU WOMEN TRIUMPH FOR FOURTH STRAIGHT YEAR

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, I want to pay special tribute today to the 1996 National Collegiate Athletic Association's Division II women's national basketball champions, the North Dakota State University Bison.

The Bison women's accomplishments are truly remarkable for any level of play. This year's title marks their fourth straight national basketball championship and their fifth title in the last 6 years.

Many thought they could not improve upon last year's season, when the Bison finished their season undefeated. While they didn't quite reach that goal, they had 2 losses this year, they did break their own record from last year for most points scored in the championship game. This year, they scored 104 points against Shippensburg, PA, in the title game. They also extended their homecourt winning streak to 43 games.

Their outstanding team accomplishments throughout the year were aided by some notable individual accomplishments. I want to especially congratulate the team's two seniors, Lori Roufs and Jenni Rademacher, for their achievements throughout their careers at NDSU. Not too many college athletes close out their collegiate careers with not one, not two, not three, but four national championship rings. That they added the fourth is due in no small part to their leadership this year.

Lori and Jenni each scored 1,000 points during their years at NDSU. And they earned the additional honor of being named to the 1996 Elite 8 All-Tournament team.

I also cannot overlook the individual accomplishments of junior Kasey Morlock, who was named Most Outstanding Player of the tournament for the second year in a row.

But a basketball team needs hard work and contributions from all of its players if it is to reach its league's pinnacle. The Bison certainly got that from juniors Rhonda Birch and Andrea Kelly, sophomores Rachael Otto and Amy Ornell, and freshmen Tanya Fischer, Molly Reif, Brenna

Stefonowicz, Theresa Lang, Heidi SMITH, and Heather Seim.

Finally, I want to honor the coaches who have turned the Bison into the dominant force in division II women's basketball. It's no coincidence that Head Coach Amy Ruley has won her fifth national championship, and I know her players have the highest respect for her as a coach and as a person. Coach Ruley is assisted on the bench by Kelli Layman, Jill DeVries, and Lynette Mund.

As with last year, all but the two seniors will be returning for next year's season, so the Bison and all of us in North Dakota can look forward to another excellent season. But for now, it is more than enough to bask in the glow of winning yet another national championship. Congratulations to a wonderful team.
